So, the birds came in, in that mystical moment and took your voice away
And now the leaves are scattered and the oak it stands no more
But, the wind does whisper your memory
The stars they scream your name
Fly free my friend the chains are lifted
Soar to the heights of angels

My condolences to the family. He was an inspiration to all of us. I met him when I was working at Red Cross a few years ago.
Courtney, I know that you will miss James, you was truly a friend to him. He is resting now, but you will see him again in his new body one day.
